

Camp Ford: Adventures in Leadership Application

During the camp you will:

Sleep under the stars, see river otter, bald eagles, play volleyball, get to know others, get to know yourself, raft the legendary Klamath River, sleep on a beach, hike to Ukonom Falls, build a shelter, use a compass, learn the natural history of the area, eat great food, share stories by the campfire, find quiet time, make real decisions, help restore a trail, do a community service project.

Beware: You will sleep outdoors for a week, take cold showers, and help cook and clean and live without your cell phone and ipod.
